Not a Single Passenger Lost
in Transfer from Liner
California

WHICH STRUCK ROCKS
ON IRISH COAST

The New York for Glasgow
Steamer Now Lies in a Dangerous Position

Londonderry, Ireland, June 29.—One thousand and sixteen passengers on the Anchor liner California, which went aground last night on Tory island during a fog while on her way from New York to Glasgow, were successfully transferred to-day to the Donaldson liner Cassandra and a small coasting steamer without loss of a single life. The crews of several British torpedo boat destroyers assisted in the rescue. The California now lies in a precarious position on the rocky coast but it is expected that she will be floated as soon as fine weather sets in. The crew remains aboard although water has penetrated three of the ship's holds. When the California struck the rocks she sent out wireless calls for help and the calls brought prompt assistance from a number of British war vessels which were patrolling the northwestern Irish coast for gun-runners in connection with the Ulster movement. The Cassandra also heard the call for help and went to the assistance of the California, all standing by during the night.

REBUILDING OF SALEM
WAS BEGUN TO-DAY

Contractors and Architects Poured Into the City To-day to Look Over the Ground—Rain Chills the Homeless.

Salem, Mass., June 29.—The actual work in preparation for rebuilding the great fire-swept area of Thursday was begun to-day when contractors and architects arrived to look over the ground to make plans for new structures. Chilly weather and mists continued to-day and in the early morning hours a heavy shower drenched the homeless. The camp sites, however, are well drained and little water has entered the tents. Stories of fraud in connection with relief work were told at a meeting to-day of the relief committee. Cases were told of where alleged sufferers secured two and three sets of clothing and sold them; other cases of bread and food given sufferers being found on sale in stores in Lynn. The relief committee plans to reduce the rations one-half because it is believed that the people are getting more than necessary. The city council has appropriated $15,000 to pay for housing the refugees.

SEVERAL SHOTS EXCHANGED

Before Capture of Alleged Murderer in West Newton, Mass.

West Newton, Mass., June 29.—After a running revolver duel with police officers through several streets yesterday, Vincenzo Paladino of Lexington was arrested, charged with the murder of Antonio Ginaloro of this city. According to the police, Paladino shot Ginaloro at the home of Sabotino Gorgone, after a dispute as to which of the two could speak Italian most correctly. Paladino was running away from the house when Richard P. Clancy, a police officer, ordered him to stop. According to Clancy the man replied with a revolver shot and Clancy then opened fire. Several shots were then exchanged, but neither man was hit. Meanwhile, word of the shooting had been telephoned to the police station and a squad of police, in charge of Inspector Edward P. O'Halloran, was soon on the scene. The man was arrested after a struggle.

Fine and costs paid.

In the case of state vs. Amos B. Wright, who entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of breach of the peace, bail was fixed in the sum of $100, and the respondent allowed to go on his own recognizance. In state vs. Ambrose Millett, a boy from Newbury, charged with a breach of the peace, the respondent entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to serve a term of three months in the county jail and pay the costs of prosecution which sentence was suspended and the respondent placed on probation. The jury were discharged on Friday morning and court will undoubtedly rise early in the week.

HOUSE ON STILTS COLLAPSED.

No One in Building Wrecked at Rutland.

Rutland, June 29.—After several months of persevering night and morning work, Clifford L. White had succeeded in erecting the shell of a house on some pine posts on Water street, near the East creek, only to see it go over, a heap of shapeless material, in yesterday's wind. The house collapsed about 6 o'clock in the afternoon, partly with its own weight, it is believed, and partly because of the stiff breeze.

From appearances, the pine posts which held the shell aloft some 20 feet or more, were torn from the ground. They went into the earth to a depth of two feet.

Mr. White, who is a carpenter, and was building a home for himself on a lot he recently purchased, places his loss in labor at $250. He has spent a great deal of time on the undertaking nights and mornings. He will immediately start again. The material was not damaged to any great extent.

The house, to which an addition was to have been made, contained three rooms on both floors. It was merely boarded or "roughed" in, and the roof boarded. No shingling, clapping, plastering or such work had been done. The owner was to have later put in cement walls, and in the meantime meant to "brace" the sustaining posts before the work proceeded much farther. This, he said last night, would have been done Monday. The house was to have been so constructed as to make the spring floods harmless.

There were always a great many children playing in the building, which was the novelty of the domicile perched aloft on poles, and it is considered very fortunate that there were none in it yesterday when the collapse occurred.

DAVIDSON—MARSON.

Well-Known Barre Young Man Married to New York City Girl.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the marriage of Miss Marjorie Kalb Marson, daughter of Mr. William James Marson of 106 Morning-side drive, New York City, to Thomas Charles Davidson, which took place at the bride's home last Tuesday afternoon. In the presence of family members and immediate friends, the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Norris at the cathedral of St. John the Divine. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and neither the bride nor the bridegroom were attended. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson are passing a part of their honeymoon with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Davidson of 106 Summer street, and will make a short stay in the Adirondack mountains in New York before returning to New York City.

Mr. Davidson is a well-known Barre boy, who has been employed for five years as one of the head clerks at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York. Recently he became connected in a similar capacity with the new Biltmore hotel. They will reside on Morningside Heights.

RAIN CHECKS FOREST FIRE.

Mount Tabor Forests Are Not in Serious Danger.

Danby, June 29.—The heavy rain has materially assisted in subduing the forest fires on Mount Tabor east of this place, which have been in progress for several days. Though at times the flames threatened serious damage, the loss has been small, being confined to the second growth and "slash" on the land cut over some years ago during the Griffith lumbering operations.

St. Johnsbury, June 29.—Mrs. Celia A. Wells, aged 70, widow of William Wells, was found dead on the kitchen floor at her residence on Spring street Saturday. Heart disease is given as the cause.

She lived alone and aside from Nathan L. Parker of St. Johnsbury and George Shores of Lyndonville, cousins, had no near relatives.

PUTS A CHECK
ON PEACE MOVE

Gen. Carranza Asks Time to Confer with His Military Chiefs

ABOUT PARTICIPATION
IN PEACE CONFERENCE

Diplomacy Receives Another
Setback at Niagara Falls

Washington, D. C., June 29.—Carranza's request for more time to consult his military chiefs over the proposal for a conference with the Huerta delegates at Niagara Falls served to-day as another cause for a delay in the efforts to restore order in Mexico through diplomacy. It is believed that the mediator will be able to reply to the revolutionary leader's request during the next day or two.

The mediators were informed by Carranza that the acceptance of any suggestions for a new provisional government required some change in the plan of Guadalupe, which was the revolutionary declaration of principles. To do that Carranza stated that the consent of his various military chiefs would be required.

VILLA ABANDONS
HIS CAMPAIGN

Returns North to Torreon and Estrangement with Carranza Is at the Breaking Point.

El Paso, Tex., June 29.—Lack of ammunition has blocked General Villa's march on Mexico City. Villa, fresh from victory last week at Zacatecas, has returned to Torreon, bringing the entire army with him.

The relations between Villa and Carranza, in the opinion of agents here, unquestionably have caused the abandonment of the campaign. The much-discussed Carranza-Villa estrangement has reached the breaking point, they asserted, through the refusal of Carranza to allow Villa to import cartridges and shells through the port of Tampico.

News of Villa's return north is regarded by both factions as ominous.

SECRET PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

Said to Be Going On Between Huerta and Carranza.

Vera Cruz, June 29.—Secret peace negotiations between General Carranza and President Huerta have been in progress in the capital, according to Antonio Magnan, an American, who arrived from Mexico City yesterday. Mr. Magnan said it was positively known that representatives from Carranza had been in the capital several days in conference with Huerta, but that the details of the discussions were unknown.

It was thought in the capital that a peace agreement between Huerta and Carranza, based on Huerta's resignation, was certain to come soon, Carranza being forced to make some concessions because of his disagreements with General Villa and Angeles.

It is reported in the capital that supporters of Villa and Carranza have been fighting near Monterey.

PLEASED WITH OUTING.

McDonnell & Sons' Employees Gathered at Fairmont Park.

The outing season in local granite plant circles was continued Saturday when a large attendance gathered at Fairmont trotting park to attend the first annual picnic of McDonnell & Sons' Granite Co. In every phase the outing proved highly successful and it was the unanimous desire of the concern's employees to continue the event annually. A dancing pavilion was constructed in one section of the park, where the merrier was continuous throughout the afternoon. Music for the dancing was furnished by an orchestra recruited from the ranks of the shed employees.

Scattered at intervals through the park were booths from which were dispensed eatables by a corps of clerks in charge of George Pierce. A greater part of the day was devoted to sporting events. The baseball game between the married and single men's teams was called at the conclusion of the fourth inning by mutual agreement when the benedictines were leading by a comfortable margin.

One of the most conspicuous events on the program was the 100-yard dash for fat men, which was won by George Pierce in a handy manner. In the free-for-all 100-yard event the fleet-footed Louis Bottigli led the field by yards. On closing the tape he was leading by such a margin that he watched the field trail the last 20 yards. Gene Fucio won the special race for children. Mrs. Reniveau won the ladies' race. Mrs. Enulio and Mrs. Labramo finished in the order mentioned.

RAIN, FAIR, SHOWERS.

Is Week's Weather Program, According To the Experts.

Washington, June 29.—Except for showers to-day in New England and the middle Atlantic states fair and warm weather is forecast for the first half of the coming week over most of the country, said the weather bureau's bulletin last night.

"In the middle Atlantic states and New England showers Monday will be followed by fair weather over both districts and by somewhat more moderate temperature over the middle Atlantic states until toward the end of the week, when showers are indicated with rising temperature."

RICHFORD MAN
GETS VALUABLE PLUM

Herbert C. Comings Appointed Collector of Customs for the Burlington District.

Burlington, June 29.—The action of President Wilson Saturday in sending to the Senate the nomination of Herbert C. Comings of Richford for collector of customs to succeed Charles H. Darling of this city ends the four-cornered contest for the best federal plum in Vermont. National Democratic Committee member Thomas H. Browne of Rutland, Mayor Burke of Burlington, Mr. Barleson, and Mr. Comings were candidates for the collectorship. Mr. Darling's commission expired nearly three months ago. He was appointed in 1905.

Mr. Comings, who is engaged in the furniture manufacturing business in Richford, was born in Berkshire, November 17, 1863. He was educated in the public schools of his native town and at Franklin academy. In 1883 he located in Richford and has been identified with the business and political life of Franklin county.

In 1898 he represented Richford in the lower branch of the general assembly. He is manager of the Sweet, Comings company, furniture manufacturers, of Richford and president of the Richford Savings bank. He is also vice-president of the First National bank of Enosburg Falls.

Shortly after the election of President Wilson Democratic plum hunters began speculating as to a division of the patronage in Vermont and for months the rank and file of the party were unable to get a line on what the administration intended to do in Vermont. The fact that there was a deadlock between the Browne and Burke-West-Rutland factions of the party came to the attention of the powers in Washington and some months ago a mediator, or umpire, in the person of Martin A. Brown of Wilmington, who spends most of his time in Boston, was sent into the state to look over the situation.

HAD PICNIC AT CALEDONIA.

Manchester Unity and Friends Attended in Large Numbers.

Nearly 300 people went to Caledonia park on Saturday to take part in the annual outing of the Green Mountain lodge of Manchester Unity, I. O. O. F. The outing was conducted on larger proportions than any in previous years and proved to be attended with greater success. Under auspicious weather conditions the merry-makers enjoyed themselves with the usual list of picnic diversions. Gathering at the Montpelier & Wells River station the picknickers left for Caledonia park during the middle of the forenoon, and it was not until late in the evening that they returned to the city on a special train. Soon after arriving at the park the committee in charge of the sporting events started the running races and field events. At the noon hour the picknickers were seated in the pavilion at a basket dinner. During the afternoon music was dispensed from the pavilion by an impromptu orchestra organized from the ranks of those present. Considerable time was devoted to dancing. A baseball game and a football contest occupied a large portion of the afternoon's card. Under the guidance of the witty brain of Charles Oliver, captain, the married men sallied forth to victory over the single men. The latter team was captained by George Carle. The game was exciting until the very start and it was only at the expiration of 10 innings that a verdict was given, 8 to 6, in favor of the married men. Charles Oliver started the twirling for the married men only to be relieved by Edwin Keast, the former Western high school pitcher, in the sixth inning. Keast held the unmarried lads scoreless during the remaining innings. In the ninth inning doubles by Craig and Oliver tied the score. In the 10th session with two men out and men on first and second bases, Keast soled a searing three-bagger over center field. He was held at third by slow base running. Stewart and Beattie were in the points for the losing team. William Craig acted as catcher for the winning team. The fast work at shortstop by Jack Kennedy for the benedictines was especially noteworthy. Football teams captained by Edwin Keast and Charles Oliver marched on the field at the conclusion of an intermission following the baseball game. The football game was won by the Keast organization by the score of 5 to 0. The Keast faction were considerably strengthened by the appearance of former Ranger football players, including Milne, Kennedy and William Stephens. The match was one-sided and very uninteresting.

The following is the result of the field sports: Ladies' place kick—Mrs. James McLeod, first; Mrs. A. Milne, second; Mrs. A. Lund, third. Challenge kick—William Leith, 175 feet; George Blake, 50 feet.

Boys' race (13 years and under)—Won by Arthur Borgh; Harold Oliver, second; John Farrar, third.

Girls' race (13 years and under)—Won by Gladys Wildgoose; Violet Milne, second; Elizabeth Carle, third.

Boys' race (13 years and over)—Won by Ralph Oliver; William Morrison, second; G. Stewart, third.

Girls' race (13 years and over)—Won by Nellie Carle; Hannah Farrar, second; Mary Geals, third.

The committee in charge of the outing was comprised of the following members: Mrs. John Stephens, Mrs. William Stephens, Mrs. Alfred Milne, Alex. Ritchie, Charles Oliver, John Kennedy and William Leith.

When arrested, Smooth had $30 in his possession and a ticket to New York. It was found that Smooth is an alleged deserter from the United States army and he was taken to Fort Ethan Allen.

HEARING SET FOR TUESDAY.

Man and Girl Who Are Charged with Statutory Offense.

Nina Ferrari and George Merrill were arraigned before Judge H. W. Scott in city court this forenoon, on statutory charges preferred against them by Grand Juror William Wishart. Through their counsel, R. A. Hoar, the respondents pleaded not guilty and hearings were fixed for Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Neither was able to furnish bail in the sum of $300 demanded by the court, and both will be detained at police headquarters until the hour for the hearings arrives. In making a moving plea for an alternative between an immediate hearing or the release of the pair on their own recognizance, Attorney Hoar invoked the governor in his recent attempt to reform the judiciary, accused the prosecution of relying on hearsay evidence in preferring the charges, and made a motion that the respondents be released. Grand Juror Wishart, who appeared for the state, made a spirited reply to the attack of the counsel for the defense.

Merrill and the Ferrari girl are still charged with the same offense. They were brought to Barre by Chief Sinclair Saturday night from White River Junction, where they had been detained since early morning by the Junction police. It is alleged that the man and the girl drove in the former's team from Waterbury or Middlesex to White River Junction. The state claims that the Ferrari girl is still a minor and that Superintendent J. N. Barnes of the state industrial school will be brought into the case, since it is alleged that she was released on parole from that institution some time ago.

Beer and Whiskey Seized.

To Francesco Garcia's house in West-sterville Saturday night, came officers with a search and seizure warrant issued at the request of State's Attorney J. Ward Carver. Deputy Sheriffs A. M. Morrison and W. F. Cutler and Officer Harry Gamble of this city made an exhaustive search of the premises and seized 36 bottles of Welz & Zerwick beer and 13 bottles of whiskey. Garcia was arrested on a warrant and brought to Barre this morning, where he was arraigned before Magistrate Scott. The respondents waived examination and bail of $500 was furnished for his appearance in the future.

Eli Bertrand of River street was arraigned before the judge to-day on the allegation of a subsequent offense, to which he entered a plea of guilty. The respondent made arrangements to pay a $15 fine with costs of $6.85. Bertrand was arrested Saturday night by Officer David Henderson.

SHARP ATTACK
ON DILLINGHAM

Charles A. Prouty Calls the Vermont Senator Out of Harmony

HE HIMSELF CAN'T BE ACTIVE CANDIDATE

But He Admits He Would Like to Be Senator

Orleans, June 29.—The Non-partisan Prouty club to-day gave out the following letter from Hon. C. A. Prouty:

Washington, June 24. "Non Partisan Prouty club, Orleans, Vt. 'Gentlemen: I am in receipt of a letter from you stating that reports are being circulated in the press and by individuals that I have declared in writing and personally that I did not desire the position of United States senator, that I did not welcome support to that end and would not serve if elected. You ask me if these statements are true.

"They are not. The only political office within the gift of the people of my native state which I have ever desired is that of United States senator; and personally an election to that position would be most gratifying. I deeply appreciate the efforts of your members and my other friends in my behalf, all the more because they have not been solicited. If chosen I should be glad to serve to the best of my ability. But I simply feel that I cannot, at the present time, undertake an active campaign and that I ought not therefore to solicit the votes of my fellow citizens. That is what I attempted to say from the first, but my meaning seems to have been misunderstood in certain quarters. In view of what you have done and of the situation which has developed it is perhaps due to you and my other friends in Vermont that I should state somewhat more fully my position on this subject.

"For personal reasons I dislike to oppose Senator Dillingham; but there are certain facts which cannot be ignored. Throughout his senatorial career Mr. Dillingham has consistently and persistently, and without doubt honestly, since his sympathies all lie in that direction, acted with that coterie of senators who have been known as the champions of special interests. These men were the bodyguard of Senator Aldrich when he was the leader of the United States Senate, and they were generally against all propositions for reform which were supposed to unfavorably affect the interests which they stood to protect. The measures of railroad regulation, for example, which I have advocated and about which I especially know, were bitterly opposed by all these men until further opposition would have been political suicide.

"These measures were not radical. Now that they are the law, railroad men themselves concede their necessity. If submitted to the voters of Vermont to-day they would be approved by nine-tenths. It is significant that the one-tenth which would not approve them are solidly behind Mr. Dillingham. Some of them were for me in 1900, but they are all against me to-day.

"If Mr. Dillingham were a solitary instance, it might be well enough to overlook it, but there is an apparent disposition in many quarters to continue in authority and even to renege these men when the country has so emphatically repudiated. Just how the Republican party can be expected at this juncture to regain and retain the confidence of this country if such men are to be put forward as its leaders passes my comprehension. As well put forward Lorimer himself. Nor can I quite see how the State of Vermont can hope to keep the prestige which has no long enjoyed in the Senate if it sends there men who, whatever their ability or personal attraction, are utterly out of sympathy with the spirit of the age. At
